

Year-End Newsletter

Volume II Issue I

November 14, 2005

Reminder of Achievements Records are due January 13th, 2006

 If you need any assistance or have questions
 be sure to let Hannah know.

Inside this issue:

Summer Judging	3
Conservation Camp	3
Senior Camp	2
Leadership Camp	3
Relay for Life	2
Pop Tab Collection	3
State Ambassador	6

Junior Leadership Members Help At County Fair

Numerous members of the Fairfield County Junior Leadership Club were involved in the many fair activities at the Fairfield County Fair Held from October 9-17 2005.

These members assisted in many jobs ranging from show assistant to Junior Fair Office Assistant to weight-in and show paperwork runners. Their hard work and effort is certainly appreciated as the fair would not run nearly as smoothly without them. We'd like to thank all those members who helped, you are way too numerous to name. Thanks for all your help!!

Advisor's Banquet Slide Show Committee

By: Sarah DeBruin

On October 23, 2005 there was a meeting at the extension office to work on the slide show for the Advisor's Banquet. Those in attendance were: Jessica Mulholland, Katrina

Swinehart, and Sarah DeBruin. We had a great time picking out pictures for the slide show.

“Be who you are and say what you think because the people that mind don’t matter and the people who matter don’t mind.”
— Dr. Seuss

Relay for Life

By: Tom Conant

We went to the Fairfield County Fairgrounds and walked a track to help raise money for cancer awareness and to fund testing. We attended Relay for Life on June 24th. Groups were formed for both Friday and Saturday. Those individuals who were involved included: Thomas Conant, Jacquie Keller, Megan McNally, Katrina Swinehart, and Jerod Young; even our advisors got into the walking: Nannette Pierce, Julie Ebright, Joel Spires and Sue Suttles joined us. Alisha Hammond headed-up the activity. We all had a great time. Thank you to all those involved.

Senior Camp

By: Bethany Thompson

Senior camp was a great success this year. The camp was “The 4-H Factor.” It was amazing to see campers from past years getting older and still coming to camp. Some of them are now counselors! It was a great way to see how 4-H is still growing even though us older campers are moving on in life. I hope that the younger generations of campers and 4-H-ers are having as much fun as I did. In the end, we all had a

Cloverbud Camp

By: Alisha Hammond

This camp not being a four day camp at Tar Hollow does not affect the huge amount of fun that our campers can have. Cloverbud camp was on July 9th and held at the fairgrounds. Although we only had a part of a day with our AWESOME campers, it was a jam-packed, fun filled day. We did such activities as: tie-dye t-shirts, make bubbles, line danced and story time with puppets. In conclusion we all had an excellent time!!

Summer Judging

By: Claire Graf

Having the last county fair presents the challenge of how to compete in the state fair, which takes place two months prior to our fair. The Jr. Leadership Club members assisted at the judging, which was held on July 18-22, by putting grades on the exhibitor cards, sorted judging sheets and helped in any way that they could. I feel the judging went very smoothly.

Conservation Camp

By: Katrina Swinehart

Conservation Camp was held July 25-30th at Camp Ohio in Utica, Ohio. This camp is centered on campers forming a land use plan. To learn to formulate this plan we attended workshops about wildlife, woodland, and land conservation techniques. The campers are split into group to form the "Land Use Plan," the counselors help. The counselors who serve as the judges then evaluate the projects. The top group receives $50 savings bonds. All in all this camp is very informative, you do a lot of hiking and see a lot of the beautiful outdoors. I had an excellent time and met tons of new people. I would recommend this camp to anyone, not just the people who love nature; you will learn all kinds of unique and interesting information. I won my trip through the Ohio Achievement Record, just check the box and your form will be evaluated and you too may find yourself at Camp Ohio next summer!

"What's right isn't always popular and what's popular isn't always right."
— Unknown

Pop Tabs

By: Jacquie Keller

The Jr. Leadership Club will be collecting pop can tabs for the Ronald McDonald Foundation. We will be collecting the pop tabs until the end of December of 2005. Any one wanting to participate in this community activity can drop-off their pop can tabs at the junior leaders meeting or the Extension office. All help with this community activity is greatly appreciated.

Fairfield County Junior Leadership Club

Next Meeting: January 9th, 2006 7:00-8:45 PM at the Extension Office Main Order of Business: Officer Nominations and 2006 plans.

If you would like to join the Junior Leadership Club contact the extension office to sign up for e-mail reminders of the monthly meetings.

Email Us
www.jrleaderofficers43130@yahoo.com

2005 Officers

President: Jerod Young

Vice President: Jacquie Keller

Treasurer: Alisha Hammond

Secretary: Katrina Swinehart

Newsletter Staff

Authors:

Thomas Conant, Sarah DeBruin Claire Graf, Alisha Hammond, Jacquie Keller, Kaleb Kohler, Jessica Mulholland, Katrina Swinehart and Bethany Thompson

Design Team:

Katrina Swinehart & Bethany Thompson

Just a reminder to those of you who ordered hoodies in the last order to pick them up at the Extension Office.

4-H State Ambassadors By: Jessica Mulholland

April 2nd, 2005 our new state ambassadors from Fairfield county went to their Orientation. Where they learned their responsibilities, goals and duties. What is an Ambassador? Well, for those of you who do not know, here is a description: Ohio 4-H teens who demonstrate excellence in 4-H achievement, citizenship, and leadership earn invitations to become Ohio 4-H ambassadors. Being a 4-H ambassador is both an honor and a responsibility. Ambassadors serve as speakers, emcees, program facilitators, hosts or hostesses, committee members, and many other youth leadership roles for 4-H and Extension programs and events throughout the state. Ohio 4-H Ambassadors are also tremendous role models for who maintain the highest standards of excellence as they fulfill their pledge of commitments of clearer thinking, great loyalty, larger service, and better living to make this best better in their clubs, become an Ambassador for the 2006-2007 year. The seven State 4-H Ambassadors from Fairfield County this year are: Angel Allen, Kaleb Kohler, Samantha McMahon, Jessica Mulholland, Katie Shaw, and Katrina Swinehart.