

The Ohio State University Extension Small Farm Program Announces...

Living Your Small Farm Dream

Northeast Ohio Small Farm Conference & Trade Show

March 27, 2010 @ R.G. Drage Career Center, Massillon, OH

Dear Small Farm Enthusiast,

You are invited to attend a very exciting and new event for small farm enthusiasts in Ohio. This intensive conference will give you the opportunity to choose from 18 different seminars taught by Extension professionals and industry leaders on a wide variety of agricultural enterprises. Seminars will focus in the areas of:

- aquaculture
- farm management
- forages & pasture
- livestock - exotic and traditional
- horticulture - fruit and vegetables
- natural resources
- Sustainable Agriculture Research and Education (SARE)
- organic production, and marketing

Saturday's agenda will provide opportunities for you to attend three (3) informative sessions of your choosing. Bring an extra family member or friend to get more out of the day. Saturday's program will begin at 9:00 A.M. with registration, the trade show, and morning refreshments. The trade show, representing the many industries servicing small farms, will be present for you to visit with throughout the day.

Registration will be held at the R.G. Drage Career Center, 6805 Richville Drive SW, Massillon. The Drage Career Center is located just north of US 30 (take the OH-627/Richville Dr exit off of US 30 in Massillon).

THANKS TO OUR CO-SPONSORS:
