   Market Goat Project
   Market Sheep Project
   Poultry Meat Pen of 2
   Poultry Single Fryer
   Poultry Roaster
   Market Turkey
   Rabbit Single Fryer
   Rabbit Meat Pen of 2

4. All Junior Fair members will have the opportunity to sell ONE market livestock or dairy project.

5. Exhibitors have the option of selling their project through the premium sale only or the premium sale and stockyards. (Overall Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion market animals must be sold and processed.)

6. Exhibitors wanting to participate in the Jr. Fair Sale must complete an online sale profile prior to the fair. Information will be provided in the spring to all members enrolled in market livestock and dairy cattle projects.

7. Junior Fair members are limited to selling ONE project unless a Junior Fair member exhibits more than one Overall Grand Champion or Reserve Grand Champion animal. To comply with Rule 2 all Overall Grand Champions and Overall Reserve Grand Champions count as a sale. This guideline also includes the Supreme Grand Dairy and Reserve Supreme Dairy.

8. Animals not sold in the Junior Fair Sale are the responsibility of the Junior Fair member. Members can arrange to sell their animals to United Producers at current market price. These animals will be loaded on United Producers Livestock Inc. trucks as scheduled by each species committee. Members' animals not going to Producers will be released according to the fair schedule.

9. The county fair veterinarian will determine if an animal is suitable for sale.

10. All market livestock will be handled by United Producers Livestock Inc. All livestock loaded on United Producers' trucks will be slaughtered during or immediately after the Clinton County Fair.

11. Junior Fair members participating in livestock sales will be assessed check-off, trucking and Breeders World processing fees, and department commission as follows: 2% general, 2% sale fund for all species and 2.5 % barn fund for dairy, 1% barn fund for swine, 1.5% barn fund for poultry, sheep, goats and rabbits and 2.5% barn fund for cattle and feeder calves. The commission and a processing fee will be assessed on the premium. Check-off and trucking/insurance will be assessed on the market re-sale amount.

12. Only Overall Grand & Reserve animals will sell in the sale ring/Junior Fair Sale of Champions and be housed in the Row of Champions.

13. Row of Champions-Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion projects must be put on display in the Peterson Barn for the Row of Champions the day they are selected. (Projects selected from Sunday-Tuesday of the fair must be put on display at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday.) The livestock projects must be on display blanket free daily for the public to observe between 8:00 a.m.-10:00 p.m. Projects may return to their respective barn during the night from 10:00 p.m.-8:00 a.m. All projects must always remain in the Junior Fair barn areas and not be in the camper, parking, or midway areas. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to clean the project pen in the barn and the champion/reserve pen in the Row of Champions immediately following project release or the exhibitor will be subject to a penalty fee.
